

NAME AND SURNAME: EVREN GÖKÇE

TITLE: IN THE BEGINNING OF NINETEEN CENTURY, A OTTOMAN COAST COUNTRY: KEMEREDREMİD

ABSTRACT

In the end of eighteen century and beginning of nineteenth century, Ottoman Empire is trying big problems. These problems that originate to be based on the past, include a lot of things from economy to management, from soil system to internal security and until wars.

In this time, become a little Aegean coast country, Kemeredremid (Burhaniye), to be managed from Naips (Regent or Successor of Religious Judge). Country has importance for Ottoman State, because of its some special products and geographical location. Between these products, especially oliveoil and lumber, to be preferred for feeding and navy service by capital city İstanbul.

1095-1 number Law registration that written in the beginning of nineteenth century, has documents related to economy, military profession, management seamanship and social foundations besides regional and national themes.

KEYWORDS

Ottoman Empire, Nineteen Century, Regent, West Anatolia, Kemeredremid, Oliveoil, Seamanship,