

ABSTRACT

In this study, we tried to narrate the movement of the Nationalist Forces between 1919 and 1920 and the social, psychologic and economic stages of this movement

In the first chapter, we informed about the socio-economic structure of Aydın Sanjak and the regional security before Greek occupation. In the second chapter, the activities of Aydın Nationalist Forces between 1919 and 1920; the role and the influence of the women and religious people in this movement were dwelt on. In the third chapter, we evaluated the social structure of Aydın Sanjak before mentioned period; informed about the destruction of Greek Cruelty during the occupation; indicated the difficulties in health, economy and feeding. Finally we evaluated the inner migration around Aydın during Greek Occupation

This study, with regard to source and information, enlightens and gives us important knowledge about military, population and the tracks of Greek Cruelty in the region during the period between 1919 and 1920, which hasn't been researched by now

Key Words: Aydın Sanjak, population, security, The Nationalist Forces, Greek Occupation, Greek Cruelty, economy, health, migration